

Vertical Lifter

Vertical Lift Assist devices/equipment is the perfect application for moving products around a large work area using overhead bi-directional tracking. The lightweight rigid structure makes it easy to move the product around the work area in a fixed orientation as well as being both pneumatically or manually rotated. The product can be gripped as an offset load and can be easily adjusted for each individual use in your business.

